

PRESS RELEASE

Arnd Seybold to take over Business Development at HollyHedge Consult GmbH from March 1, 2022

Frankfurt am Main, 1 March 2022 - HollyHedge Consult GmbH is pleased to announce that we have succeeded in recruiting Arnd Seybold as Managing Director Business Development. In the newly created position, he will be responsible for sales and marketing activities in close cooperation with the two managing directors and portfolio managers Henning Gebhardt and Christoph Lampert. Together they manage the Millennium Global Opportunities multi-asset fund, which was successfully launched by Frank Zinnecker almost 20 years ago.

Seybold looks back on 25 years of industry experience and was responsible for the very successful sales with wholesale clients in Germany and Austria at Aberdeen Standard Investments until March 2021. There, he significantly deepened and developed the close cooperation with large distribution partners.

Prior to that, he was responsible for the mutual fund business for 16 years in product management investments at Deutsche Bank.

"We are very pleased to have gained an experienced manager with comprehensive knowledge of the investment fund business in Arnd Seybold. His profound sales and marketing know-how will help us to achieve the goals we have set for our company", the managing directors announced.

HollyHedge Consult GmbH launched the predecessor fund of Millennium Global Opportunities (WKN 983449) in 2003. In 2021, Millennium Global Opportunities again won the 10-year Refinitive Lipper Funds Award in the Absolute Return category. It has a four-star rating from Morningstar. The fund currently has around EUR 45 million AuM. Its equity focus is on companies from fast-growing future trends, influenced by the Millennial generation.
